

Biography: Brian Frank, CPIM, CSCP, SCOR-P

Brian Frank served in the Army for 22 years, during which time he was a ground equipment maintenance officer, ammunition supply officer, and, by the end of his career, an Army logistician. When he retired, he began working for Booz Allen Hamilton, Inc., supporting the DoD in their logistics efforts.

Brian was certified as a Supply Chain Professional (CSCP) in 2006 through APICS, a Supply Chain Operations Reference-model (SCOR) Professional (SCOR/P) through the Supply Chain Council in 2008, and Production and Inventory Management (CPIM) through APICS in 2011. Brian has been on the DC Metro Chapter Board of Directors for three years and looks forward to continued service in the future.
