

Biography: Andrew Onda, CSCP

Humberto Coronado is an APICS member since 2011. As a Logistics professional, he brings a wealth of industry insight and knowledge developing business relationships with organizations focused on the logistics of Operations. His Logistics industry experience included operational responsibilities with American President Lines (APL), European West Indies Lines (EWL), Frontier Liner Services and Evergreen Marine Taiwan's Colombian General Agent. Humberto is also currently a student in the Master of Professional Studies in Supply Management at Penn State and a passionate teacher. As VP of Programs, Humberto hopes to continue to enhance the value of APICS membership by providing high quality educational and networking opportunities for Washington DC Chapter members.